Lieut. Bryan, U. S. N. stated before the Am. Soc. of Naval Engineers: "Oils made from the asphalt-base crudes have shown themselves to be much better adapted to motor cylinders, as far as their carbon-forming proclivities are concerned, than are paraffine-base Pennsylvania oils."

Zerolene is scientifically refined from selected California crude— asphalt-base. Highest competitive awards, San Francisco and San Diego Expositions. For sale by dealers everywhere and at service stations and agencies of the Standard Oil Company.

AT THE THEATERS

Exceptionally strong is the program at the Wailuku Orpheum and Kahului Lyceum for this coming week.

"Nearly a King" is a rip-roaring comedy and shows John Barrymore in one of his best screen efforts. Barrymore is one of the comedians who does not depend upon "slap-stick" to secure his laughs. His comedy is termed, in the profession, "straight," and is largely secured through apparent ludicrous situations which prove to be only normal in the final analysis.

In this play Barrymore appears in a dual role, as Jack Barrymore American, and as "The Prince of Bulwara." The resemblance between the prince and the young American is great and their love affairs run counter of each other thereby causing the merriment. Eventually the situations clear up in a satisfactory manner and the pair are straightened out, each with the "right girl."

"A Night Out"
May Robson is the star in question and the comedy in which she is presented to patrons of the "noiseless" drama has brought her into instant favor in her new line of endeavor.

The story deals with "Grandmum," that's May Robson, who has lived a sedate life, dominated by a puritanical and straight-laced husband. Upon his demise she determines to "see life" and, finding her daughter to have inherited the traits of the father, she is compelled to turn to her wild young grandsons for aid.

"The Iron Claw"
Did you know that dainty Pearl White was once a circus rider? Her daring in serial plays has placed her in a field without competition. Beginning tomorrow she is featured in a new story, "The Iron Claw," which will occupy the screen at the Orpheum and Lyceum, Saturday night.

The Famous Players' production of "Poor Little Peppina" is the first under the new combination called the "Famous Players-Pickford Company."

"Madonna Jewels"

"Sin" is a most expressive title for a photo-play and the Fox Film Corporation's feature in which Theda Bara is seen in the leading role is just as expressive as the title. Also, it is somewhat different from Theda Bara's previous "vampire" parts. As Rosa, an Italian peasant girl with a desire to see the great outside world, she spurns the love of Luigi, also a peasant, for the glittering promises of Pietro and with the latter leaves her home for New York.

Life in the great Italian section of New York, does not prove all that Rosa had anticipated and she wishes for more and better things than Pietro can supply. Chief among these are the sacred jewels from the breast of the Madonna of Mt. Carmel. Her wish, to Luigi, is a command and he steals the jewels for her.

From thence forward the action is swift and strong with climax following climax until the end finds Rosa insane and Luigi dead at his own hands.

"Trail of the Lonesome Pine"

The photoplay of "The Trail of the Lonesome Pine" tells the story of melodramatic incidents in the attempts of a United States Revenue Officer to stop the illegal manufacture of whiskey among the "moonshiners" in the mountains of Virginia. He is pitted against a band of rough mountaineers, led by Judd Tolliver. The "moonshiner's" daughter, June—the role played by Miss Walker—falls in love with the Government agent and is caught between her affection for her people in the mountains and the young stranger who would ruin their illicit traffic.

The cast of "The Trail of the Lonesome Pine" is one of the most notable gathering of screen stars in many months. Theodore Roberts will appear as Judd Tolliver, Thomas Meighan will play the role of John Hale, the Revenue Officer and Earl Fox will appear as Dave Tolliver.
